

General Exhibition Conditions of CPO HANSER SERVICE GmbH – Berlin and and CPO HANSER SERVICE – Hanser & Co GmbH – Hamburg hereinafter referred to as CPO HANSER SERVICE

Information Sheet AB 14

1. Event

CPO HANSER SERVICE is the organizer of the exhibition described in the “Invitation to the Industry” which it has submitted for participating companies. The instructions and schedules contained in that proposal shall form an integral part of these exhibition conditions. Any estimates made by CPO HANSER SERVICE with respect to the expected number of visitors shall be non-binding.

2. Registration

A request for registration shall be submitted informally or using the stand registration form issued by CPO HANSER SERVICE. The issue of the form shall not give rise to any legal entitlement to demand confirmation of the registration. Unilateral modifications or provisos stipulated by the exhibitor shall have no legally binding effect unless they are confirmed in writing by CPO HANSER SERVICE. Upon submitting the stand registration form, the exhibitor shall be deemed to have made a binding offer to enter into a contract as an exhibitor. CPO HANSER SERVICE shall be under no obligation to accept such offer.

3. Confirmation of Registration and Payment of Stand Rental

CPO HANSER SERVICE and the exhibitor shall enter into a written contract confirming the exhibitor's registration. The content of the contract shall incorporate the particulars of the registration form and these general exhibition terms. If CPO HANSER SERVICE and the exhibitor agree in writing on any modifications or amendments to the general exhibition conditions, these shall take precedence over any provisions to the contrary in the general exhibition terms. CPO HANSER SERVICE shall select exhibitors and exhibits and initially allot space on a non-binding basis after examining the registration forms. There shall be no legal right to demand confirmation of registration.

CPO HANSER SERVICE may revoke any confirmation of registration and thus rescind the contract if the registration was confirmed on the basis of incorrect information or the conditions for confirmation of the registration are no longer satisfied. Upon the registration being confirmed, the exhibitor shall receive an invoice for the stand rental. The invoice amount shall be remitted to CPO HANSER SERVICE within 30 days of the invoice date.

If this payment period is exceeded, CPO HANSER SERVICE may rescind the contract and recover compensation after setting an additional period of 10 days for payment.

4. Allocation of and Alternatives to Stand Locations

CPO HANSER SERVICE shall disclose details of the final stand allocation after the number of participating exhibitors is known to it. CPO HANSER SERVICE shall allocate stands in the light of the subject matter and structure of the exhibition as well as the available space.

Stands shall not be allocated solely on the basis of the order in which registrations are received.

If necessary, CPO HANSER SERVICE may alter the size, form and location of the stand even after it has been allocated.

CPO HANSER SERVICE shall notify the exhibitor immediately of any such alteration and, as far as possible, offer it an equivalent alternative stand. Any difference in the stand rental shall be charged or reimbursed, as the case may be.

The exhibitor may submit an objection to such alteration within three days of receipt of the notification if it cannot reasonably be expected to accept such alteration. If CPO HANSER SERVICE is unable to offer the exhibitor a reasonable alternative, the exhibitor may rescind the contract within a further 3 days, it being agreed that no further remedies shall be available to either party in this connection. Moreover, the exhibitor must accept the possibility that the location of the other stands is altered at the beginning of the exhibition and thus deviates from the original plan. The exhibitor may not swap the stand allocated to it with other exhibitors or allow any third parties to use all or part of the stand except with CPO HANSER SERVICE's approval.

After the registration has been confirmed, the exhibitor may not cancel the contract or reduce the stand rental. The entire stand rental plus the ancillary costs in the amount actually incurred shall be payable in full unless CPO HANSER SERVICE is able to allocate the stand to a third party, in which case the exhibitor shall pay 20% of the stand rental as a handling fee.

If an exhibitor whose registration has been confirmed but who does not take part in the exhibition arranges for another exhibitor to use the stand and such exhibitor is acceptable to CPO HANSER SERVICE, the original exhibitor shall pay 20% of the stand rental as a handling fee.

6. Relocation or Cancellation of the Exhibition

In the event of any circumstances beyond its control, CPO HANSER SERVICE may postpone, shorten, extend, temporarily close all or any part of the exhibition or cancel it. If the exhibition is postponed, the registration shall remain binding for a further period of six months.

The exhibition may also be cancelled or shortened if there is insufficient interest on the part of exhibitors. In this case, CPO HANSER SERVICE shall reimburse the payments made by the exhibitor covering services which have not been provided.

7. Stand Assembly and Design

Upon accepting the stand area allocated to it, the exhibitor shall be deemed to have accepted and acknowledged the conditions prevailing there. The stand shall be assembled in such a way that all building, fire-safety and other public safety rules as well as the exhibition venue rules and the exhibition conditions issued by the lessor of the exhibition venue (congress centre, municipal hall, hotel) are duly observed.

The exhibitor shall observe any technical guidelines which CPO attaches to the confirmation of registration. Where applicable, the permission of the local building inspection authority shall be obtained. CPO HANSER SERVICE shall not be liable for any errors or omissions in the details of any administrative rules and other regulations communicated to the exhibitor.

The exhibitor shall determine the internal design of the stand at its own discretion. However, it shall harmoniously blend into the overall setting. CPO HANSER SERVICE shall be free to re-allocate any stand space which is not occupied or utilized by the applicable date. In this case, the exhibitor failing to occupy or utilize the space in question shall not be entitled to any remedies or reimbursement of the stand rental paid. All exhibits including stand and packaging material and the like which are not removed from the exhibition venue by the end of the dismantling period shall be removed at the exhibitor's expense and risk and, at CPO HANSER SERVICE's discretion, either destroyed or sold in accordance with the provisions on lien enforcement sales (Sections 814 - 825 of the German Code of Civil Procedure) after the expiry of reasonable additional time. The proceeds from such sale net of all costs including those incurred by CPO HANSER SERVICE shall accrue to the exhibitor.

Any damage to the exhibition venue shall be remedied at the exhibitor's expense by companies retained by the lessor of the exhibition venue, however only at its instigation.
